Bloody Breathitt.

John Aikman, aged 71 years, a feud character of Breathitt county, was shot a killed by Ade Griffith about twenty miles about Jackson Thursday night, and his son, Mart, was mortally wounded.

One-third of a century of fair dealing is a guarantee of the future and makes the plan of the Hopkinsville Building & Loan Association worth investigating.

IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Child is Killed and Its Mother Sustained Broken Arm.

THE MACHINE WAS DITCHED.

Tragedy Occurred at Moseley's Bridge, Six Miles East of the City.

The first fatal automobile accident in this county occurred Sunday at noon, at Moseley's bridge, on the Fairview pike, when a machine driven by Lee Blankenship ran into a ditch. In the machine with Blankenship were Mrs. Nick Blankenship, his step-mother, of Elkton; Mrs. John West and her 14-months-old son, of Evansville.

The child was instantly killed being caught under the two women and some baggage.

Mrs. West had one arm broken and sustained some bad bruises about the head and face. Mrs. Blankenship, aside from some bruises, was not hurt.

Blankenship was not hurt, but was too excited to render much assistance to the ladies until persons who saw the accident came to their relief.

One man who saw the accident says the machine was going about 40 miles an hour and cleared the bridge, but left the road a few yards beyond and fell into a ditch five feet deep. Blankenship says he was not speeding when the accident occurred.

The child's body was buried at the West burying ground near Laytonsville yesterday.

The child's father arrived from Evansville Sunday evening. Mrs. West, who is a daughter of Nick Blankenship, of Elkton, had been visiting her father for two weeks and was on her way to the home of her husband's father, James West, near Laytonsville.

The machine was a Rio runabout owned by the Blankenships.

MIDNIGHT ACCIDENT.

Results In Very Serious Injury To John VanCleve, Jr., Saturday Night.

THROWN FROM A BUGGY.

Fell Upon His Head And Has Regained Consciousness For Only a Short Interval.

John VanCleve, Jr., and Everett Penick, two young men, were thrown from a buggy late Saturday night and VanCleve was dangerously injured and even now the exact extent of his injuries cannot be told. The young men had gone to bed at Mr. Jno. J. VanCleve's, two miles from town on the Clarksville pike, when Mr. VanCleve's son-in-law, Mack Russell, arrived on a night train and telephoned that he was about to get a horse and buggy and come out. Young VanCleve told him not to do that, but wait until he could come to town after him. Penick, a student at McLean College, was spending the night with VanCleve and the young men hitched up Mr. Russell's horse, which was at his father-in-law's, and drove to town.

They are not clear as to how the accident happened. When in front of Mr. J. T. Wall's, they were suddenly aroused from the half-sleep they had dropped into by the buggy's hitting the curbing and Penick was thrown headlong out of the vehicle, but escaped with no injuries of consequence. This caused the horse to run and he ran at high speed a square or more, when VanCleve was thrown out at the corner of Virginia and 18th street, in front of Mrs. Ledford's house. He struck with such force upon his head that he was rendered entirely unconscious. Persons in the vicinity were soon on the scene and Douglas Hancock summoned an automobile and took the young man to his home near the city. On the way out he had a convulsion and it was feared that he would not live to get home. Drs. Stone and Thomas were with him. His pulse was beating only 32 when he reached home. Everything possible was at once done. It was found that no bones were broken, a severe contusion on the forehead being the trouble. The outer wall of the skull is not fractured. The young man regained consciousness for a short while Sunday morning, but soon lapsed again into unconsciousness and was delirious.

A surgeon from Evansville arrived Sunday and nothing is being left undone to save the young man's life.

He is a splendid young man, widely popular and his friends in large numbers called at his home Sunday to express their sorrow and were greatly gratified to be told that there was at least a chance for his recovery. His condition was unchanged yesterday afternoon.

SPREADING ADDER

Buries Fangs in Limb of Mrs. Richard Petsch.

Mrs. Richard Petsch, who resides a few miles west of the city, was bitten twice on the ankle by a spreading adder, a very poisonous species of the snake family, as she was entering her garden to gather vegetables a few mornings ago. The poison injected into her system by the fangs of the reptile made her quite sick and her condition was serious for some hours, but she is now much better and will recover.

The Hopkinsville Building & Loan Association will aid you in acquiring a home. Have you investigated the plan? THOS. W. LONG, Treas.

Judge O'Rear smarts under the charge of insincerity. He brought it on himself. His proclaiming Bradley "the greatest living Kentuckian"
was a reflection on his intelligence, and his assurance that Bradley's title to a seat in the United States Senate was "without flaw or stain" convicted him of insincerity. A candidate who pretends to believe either of these statements forfeits his right to public confidence.

A Kansas City, Kan., judge fined a man $100 for kissing his own wife in a public park, wonder what the fine would have been if he had kissed somebody else's wife?

Judge O'Rear will talk for hours about the Constitution, but you could not get him to devote a minute to the discussion of the Republican state and national administrations if you were to offer him a pension for life.

A vote for O'Rear means a vote for Taft that the Democrats of the Nation are depending on Kentucky to fire the opening gun of 1912 campaign.

Here is testimony to prove their

Mrs. A. T. Lee, two miles from Elkton, Ky., says: "Kidney disease rendered me helpless and I could not turn in bed without assistance. My back was racked with pain and I did not have strength enough to move.
The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused annoyance. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, my husband procured a box for me and I began their use. The first few doses gave me relief and as I continued taking them, I steadily improved until I was in good

the tragedy.

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup.
Often it aroused Lewis Chemblin, of Manchester, O. (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved that a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear.
We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others.

of the Nickelodeon, according to the report of the American Numis-says there is only one other in existence except the one they have, and offer that amount for the coin.

It is a 50-cent piece made in the year 1853, and was taken in by Mr.
Hayes as a half dollar in the regular course of business.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Represent-

of the Steel Investigating Committee of the House is bearing fruit sooner than he or anyone else anticipated.
It is regarded as exceedingly significant here that only a few weeks after the Kentuckian announced his in-between the United States Steel Corporation and the International Har-

come from the Department of Justice that the Harvester Trust has opened was also intimated here that the

THE MAGAZINESThe American Magazine for Oct.

The American Magazine for October publishes the first instalment of the autobiography of Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. It deals with the early life and first political struggles of one of the greatest fighting liberals of this generation. It is crammed with adventures and vivid with intimate pictures of great men.

Fiction, in the October American,
is headed by announcement of H. G.
Wells' new serial novel "Marriage," which begins in the November number. Mr. Wells stands at the head of contemporary novelists and students of the age, and "Marriage" is a startling analysis of matrimony
by the one man who realizes its relation to modern society.

The October Woman's Home Companion.

The October Woman's Home Companion contains the first chapter of a new serial, "The Poor Lady," by Mary E. Wilkins Freeman. It is a story of modern American life, and is chiefly concerned with two women—one, an ambitious and unscrupulous wife; the other, fine, high-minded and womanly.

In the same number a well-known financial authority writes an article of interest and importance to every woman. He describes the snares set by dishonest business concerns to catch women investors, and tells many stories of real life illustrating his points.

Other notable articles are: "Experiments in Spending," "The Girlhood of Madame Schumann-Heink,"
"The Moving-Picture Show," "Money-Making at Home" and "Women Painters of America."

Popular Mechanics For October

The fact that the United States government recently issued the mil-lionth patent was a matter of pride to both press and public and as such was bruited throughout the land.
Nevertheless, the number of patents cannot astonish for size the person who keeps abreast of the times by reading Popular Mechanics Magazine. Rather, he beholds for every practical device protected by its inventor, the germination of a dozen ideas which are assimilated by the general public for its use. Doubtless many of these would not be patentable, but they add their quota to the convenience, comfort, and profit of human existence.

Progress In Harvesting Imple-

The reapers of forty centuries are shown in two pages of illustrations

most modern is a traction reaper-

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan, tried to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.
It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—for the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

The Rose of Kentucky.

The Princess presented a Night Rider film Thursday night, the title being "The Rose of Kentucky." A bachelor planter adopts a little orphan girl, who is educated by him and looked after by the motherly old housekeeper until she returns from boarding school a grown young lady.

Different scenes show the culture of tobacco and the planter refuses to join the combine. His young partner appears and falls in love with the girl. Night riders attack the place and the planter and his partner take guns and go to defend the barn, the partner going very reluctantly. The girl follows and also gets in the barn. The night riders clad in white sheets and white masks attack the barn and the planter uses his pump gun through a hole in the wall, killing one. The partner hides behind a pile of tobacco and the girl secures his gun and helps to defend the barn until the night riders are driven off, taking the dead outlaw with them. The girl feels a contempt for the young man who would not fight and tells the planter that he is not too old for her, as he fears, and throws herself into the arms of the brave man. Large crowds saw the picture and it was loudly applauded.

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.

Outclassed.

Hewitt—"Can you believe what he says?" Jewett—"If he and Ananias had been contemporaries, Ananias would have felt that it was necessary for him to go out and get a reputation."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Judge O'Rear As a Demagogue.

Each day reveals Judge O'Rear as the most ardent demagogue that ever sought high office in this State. Timing his contentions to suit the particular locality in which he happens to be, he appeals to any class or prejudice that promises to secure him votes. He does not hesitate to champion any cause, if by doing so he can further his political interests.

On last Tuesday, he began a tour of the Eleventh District, and as he left the railroad and rode deeper into the mountains, he found a new text. At Manchester, in Clay county, he said to his audience:

"By the vilest slander ever registered against the people, they have branded you as ignorant, red-handed feudists, and have said: 'It does not matter what we do to them.'"

Judge O'Rear does not say who has circulated this slander on the mountain people, but his intimation is that it had a political origin, and that he, as the Republican nominee, comes to defend them and proclaim their virtues to the world.

There is lawlessness in the mountains, just as there is in the lowlands, in town and city. No fair person blames the mountain people as a class, for it is well known that their quarrels are exaggerated and given prominence by yellow newspapers who conceal the law-breaking in their own midst.

No part of the State is growing so rapidly as the whole mountain section, and its development is due to the enterprise of some Democrats and Republicans who have faith in its future and have backed their judgment with their money and energy.

It is fair for Judge O'Rear to try to play upon the passions of these mountain people to gain a few votes. He bears them no greater friendship or affection than Governor McCreary, who has always been their friend and neighbor, and whose supporters are among those who have done more to bring Eastern Kentucky favorably before the world than all other influences combined.

Judge O'Rear, in his role as a demagogue, has played many parts, but the last one he has essayed is the most discreditable of all.—Exchange.

Wicket Dams For Ohio River.

The largest movable wicket dam in the world and the only one built entirely of reinforced concrete is the Fernbank dam in the Ohio River, says the October Popular Mechanics Magazine.

It cost the government $1,500,000, but it is a beauty, and Uncle Sam is so well pleased with it that he is going to build more like it in the Ohio River until the entire stream is pooled from Pittsburgh to Cairo, a distance of more than 1,000 miles.

The Fernbank dam gives Cincinnati a permanent harbor of not less than 9 ft. of water, and navigation can be carried on for a distance of 12 miles upstream and for 12 miles downstream from Cincinnati to the location of the dam.

CURRENT COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

Judge O'Rear reminded the people of the Eleventh District that he wrote the decision which assured them their homes by settling land titles in the mountains. The majority of the Court of Appeals, when that just law was approved, were Democrats. They did their duty under their oath of office, without regard to the political views of the holders of these titles. Why does Judge O'Rear seek to make political capital out of his work on the bench? If judges are to be rewarded for their decisions, the courts will soon descend to auction blocks where the highest bidder will get the verdict.

Louisiana is stirred up over a highly sensational tragedy in high life, the killing of Allen Garland last Tuesday by Mrs. J. P. McCrea, a young society woman of Opelousas, in a room of her residence. Mrs. McCrea is in jail, refused bail, and Garland's relatives will prosecute her vigorously. Mrs. McCrea refuses to discuss the details leading up to the shooting of young Garland.

Nineteen hold-over Senators just one-half that body, are Democrats. They will be presided over by Edward J. McDermott—clean, capable and trustworthy. They can put into practical laws the reforms promised by the platform. They are not only under pledge to their party, but the people will hold them to strict account. Give them a Governor of their own political faith, and discord will vanish and the needs of the State will be supplied. Judge O'Rear in the executive office, with a Democratic legislature would be as helpless as a child.

What true Democrat will vote for a party that accepts the leadership of Caleb Powers, convicted as an accomplice in the assassination of Gov. Goebel? The Republicans deify him as a martyr, selected him to help write their platform, and will elect him to the United States Senate if they carry the legislature. The way to rebuke these associates and defenders of murderers is to put them out of business by electing the entire Democratic ticket.

Governor McCreary will get the votes of practically every ex-Confederate soldier in the State. He fought with them and they know his courage and loyalty. Those who strayed away into the Willson camp four years ago are back in line with their party this year under the Democratic banner.

Judge O'Rear promises the voters that he will talk about national issues next year. That will be too late. Judge. By that time, with McCreary as Governor, the victorious hosts of Democracy will be marching on to the White House.

Let Kentucky remain in Republican hands this year, and you give them a new lease of life in State and nation. Vote them out now, and there will not be a corporal's guard left next year to make a contest.

The good effects of Congressman Ben Johnson's strong speech at Danville are already showing themselves. His personal following is as large as any man's in the State, and it has been lined up solid for the Democratic ticket.

The Republican leaders have deserted O'Rear because they know he is a loser. They are not going to waste their time, tongues and money on him.

The Orphan Brigade's recent reunion disclosed the fact that 35 members had died during the past year. Of the survivors 75 were present. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, aged 79, being the oldest.

Ollie James' speech at Elizabethtown was a masterpiece. He riddled the pretensions of the Republicans, tore their sham platform into shreds, and pictured O'Rear as the insincere leader of a nondescript army of office-holders and office-seekers, whose promises of reform are belied by their public records. Mr. James' review of the Republican party's career in state and nation convicts this friend of the trusts and enemy of the people of betraying every pledge in its platform. From the way the voters are enjoying the onslaughts of the eloquent nominee for Senator, national questions are live issues this year.

Capt. W. J. Stone will be a candidate for Congress in the First District to succeed Ollie James.

Trading on the Court's Opinions.

Judge O'Rear hardly crossed the line into the Eleventh district before he began to remind the mountain people that he had written the opinion which had perfected the titles to their lands, and made their homes secure. That is true, but it is only half true. Judge O'Rear could not have put that decision upon the books had not his fellow-Judges, all Democrats, empowered him to do so. It was not a political decision, nor was it the result of personal influence or persuasion. It was a just verdict, which the Supreme Court of the United States upheld, and it is not only secured to the mountain people their humble homes, but made it possible for capital to build railroads, open mines and bring timber to market, and otherwise uncover the riches of that marvelous section. There was general rejoicing all over Kentucky when this decision enfranchised the mountain people. Politics had nothing to do with it, and Judge O'Rear had just one vote on the question.

It will become the Judge of the Court of Appeals to point to his decisions, and remind the people who profited by them that his hand wrote them, and that for this reason he should receive their generous consideration. It is not only against the ethics of the Judge's profession for him to do this, but it brings the whole Court in disrepute to have its decisions placed upon the bargain counter as if they were matters of barter and sale.

The more the people of the State see of the Republican nominee for Governor, the more they will realize that instead of a broad, liberal, fair-minded Judge holding the balances level with a firm hand, he has become the time-serving politician, appealing to every petty prejudice and seeking every advantage.

CONVENTION OF WORKERS

For Temperance Will Open A Five Days Session Friday Night.

MORE HOMES ARE NEEDED.

Committee Appeals For Aid In Entertaining The Hundreds of Visitors.

Widespread interest is being aroused in the various meetings to be held this week in connection with the State Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The Committees and the members of the local Union are busily engaged in making preparations necessary for the entertainment of so large a body. About one hundred or more delegates are expected from all over the State, besides the visitors to the Convention from other states.

The Convention will open on Friday night, Sept. 29th, and will close on Tuesday night, Oct. 3rd. The delegates will be entertained in the homes of the members of the local Union and of the friends who are interested. On each day of the Convention, except Sunday, luncheon will be served the visitors by the Hopkinsville Union at the Odd Fellows Hall. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been engaged to furnish these lunches; this will be a convenience to the delegates as well as to those who entertain them, enabling the hostesses to attend the sessions during the day. If any one whom the Committee has not yet seen is willing to entertain one or more delegates to the Convention, please communicate at once with Mrs. Walter Kelly, chairman; the local Union will greatly appreciate any assistance in this line.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the daily business sessions and also the exercises at night. On Friday night will be given the addresses of welcome and response and the President's annual address, interspersed with music. Intense interest is centered in the Silver Medal Contest to be held on Saturday night, the contestants being our own boys and girls. Their speeches are all fine and will interest the public. A pleasing feature of the program will be a little sketch entitled, "Alcohol'll get you if you don't watch out," presented by Roy Leonard Rice, a little boy from Louisville, assisted by twenty of our own little boys and girls. There will also be a very beautiful musical selection given by five of our leading vocalists. Other musical numbers will be rendered by local talent. No one should fail to attend this contest. On Sunday afternoon and night Hon. Richmond Pearson Hobson will deliver two addresses which every one should hear. He is one of the most entertaining speakers on the lecture platform; he is a man with a message which he presents in a most forceful and convincing manner.

On Monday night Mrs. Almema Parker McDonald, of Chicago, a very forcible speaker, will make an address. There will be no charge for any of these entertainments except the Medal Contest on Saturday night; the admission to that will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

The local committees are all busy in preparing for the meeting, following being the various chairmen: Entertainment, Mrs. Walter Kelly. Music, Mrs. L. E. Foster. Luncheon, Mrs. R. B. Rogers. Reception, Mrs. W. R. Brumfield. Decorations, Miss Katherine Long. Printing, Mrs. C. D. Richards. The following is the program for the addresses of welcome Friday night:

ADDRESSES OF WELCOME. On behalf of the City, Mayor Meacham. On behalf of the Churches, Rev. H. D. Smith. On behalf of the Bar, Judge J. T. Hanbery. On behalf of the Schools, Prof. H. G. Brownell. On behalf of the Local, W. C. T. U. Miss Katie McDaniel.

A most interesting feature will be the Medal Contest Saturday night.

ENTHUSIASTIC FOR HIGHWAY

Notable Meeting At Paducah
Indorses Jeff Davis System
of Roads.

A GREAT PURCHASE LOOP.

Meeting The Biggest Good Roads Rally Ever Held In The State.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 25.—What was possibly the greatest good roads meeting yet held in the State of Kentucky was that of the Jefferson Davis Highway meeting at this place Friday. The purpose of the meeting was to select a route from Hopkinsville to Paducah. Instead of the one route only being chosen, it was agreed that there should be a loop formed between the two cities. This agreement was reached after full and free discussion. Delegates and visitors numbered 1,200.

One route extends from Hopkinsville to Princeton; from Princeton, via Fredonia, to Marion; from Marion, via Salem, to Smithland; from Smithland, via Ledbetter, to Paducah. The other proceeds from Hopkinsville to Cadiz; from Cadiz to Murray, via Eggers Ferry; from Murray to Mayfield; from Mayfield to Paducah.

In addition another branch midway between these will run from Princeton via Eddyville to Benton, thence forking to both Paducah and Mayfield.

There was talk of extending the Highway from Paducah to Wickliffe, Ky., and this was agreed to in an amendment to the constitution.

It is expected that the Fiscal Court in each county that the Jefferson Davis Highway traverses will appropriate $100 for the preliminary survey, which will probably be in charge of S. F. Crecelius, of Louisville.

Rush Watkins, of Louisville, who originated the movement for the highway, characterized the convention as the greatest in every respect that he had ever attended. Mr. Watkins started the Jefferson Davis Way at the meeting in Elkton August 3, and the climax here made him the most jubilant in the convention.

Promptly at 10 o'clock President J. C. Penick, of Elkton, called the meeting to order. As a courtesy to Vice-President W. V. Eton, of Paducah, the latter was asked to preside, which he did in a satisfactory manner. County Judge Barkley welcomed the delegates and visitors.

John C. Duffy, of Hopkinsville, pictured the highway from Hopkinsville to Paducah, beautified with catalpa trees, and said it would be an impetus for good roads all over the State. In Christian county, Mr. Duffy said, the citizens would give a highway from the home of Jefferson Davis to the Trigg county line, or to the Caldwell county line, or to both. He spoke of the good roads in his own county, built by taxation, and laid stress on the pike from Hopkinsville to the State line, seventeen miles, which is one of the prettiest roads in this end of the state. He said the Davis Highway was going to cost some money, and concerted action was necessary to get it.

Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, once a gallant Confederate soldier, and possibly the most conspicuous figure in attendance, said that one-seventh of the population of the State lived on or near the proposed routes, hence its construction would be of great public service. He said the eyes of the whole State were sent this way, and that it was up to the people of this end of Kentucky to build this great monument, which would be the greatest ever constructed to the memory of a soldier.

"This road will be traveled by thousands of people," Col. Young said, "and the catalpa trees I have promised will be looked upon, blessed and admired by every person who drives or walks over the road, and they will keep my memory fresh. I was urged to put the money these trees will cost in the road, but we do not want this historic thoroughfare ruined with grass growing on either side. Neither do we want rail fences along the route. By the time the road is built there will be a State stock law and there will be no need of fences."

Robert H. Scott, of Paducah, also spoke briefly.

All delegates were apparently satisfied by the agreement for two routes from Hopkinsville to Paducah.

The Executive Committee will call the next meeting. It is composed of the County Judge and the following: Trigg county, D. L. Becker, John S. Lawrence; Calloway, L. Y. Woodruff and Rainey T. Wells; Marshall, W. M. Reeder and Peter Ely; Graves, W. B. Holifield and W. B. Stanfield; Caldwell, John C. Gates and John W. Hollingsworth; Crittenden, W. V. Yandell and J. W. Blue; Livingston, G. N. Moeger and C. H. Wells; Lyon, W. J. Stone and N. W. Utley; McCracken, James Campbell, Jr., and E. W. Brockman, Ballard, Dr. T. M. Baker and John Harkless.

Christian county was represented by Jno. C. Duffy, J. M. Morris, R. E. Cooper, R. J. Carothers, M. L. Eib, H. C. Richards and W. A. Wilgus.

AMUSEMENTS

"DRIFTWOOD"

At Holland Opera House Sept. 29 the Leffler Bratton Company will offer a new four act drama entitled "Driftwood" from the pen of Owen Davis. A play that has received the unqualified approval of the press and public wherever it has been presented.

A most capable company will appear including Misses Edna Archer Crawford, Bertha Welby, Bessie Lee Evelyn Booth, Eva Fenton and John Kink, James Heenan, John Fenton and Fred Huxtable. The title of the piece is immediately suggestive of the sea, but in this instance "Driftwood" is a human equation a beautiful young woman in fact being driven from pillar to post in an effort to earn an honest livelihood.

It should be interesting and important from the point of social reform. There is said to be considerable of the imperishable spirit of romance and a vein of happy comedy interwoven with the serious problem.

CIRCUS COMES ON THURSDAY.

Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Great Show to Arrive On Four Trains.

EQUIPMENT IS ALL NEW.

Street Parade Costing $1,000-000 Will Take Place Thursday Morning.

The first of Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' special circus trains will arrive in Hopkinsville soon after midnight tomorrow night. On this first train is the commissary department, that is the kitchen and hotel outfit and the horses and men necessary to haul it to the grounds and set it up. This is the first train to be dispatched to the next stand every night in order that there may be no delay in the preparation of breakfast for the hungry horde to follow.

The second section, bearing the menagerie, will be the next to arrive. On the third train will come the parade equipment and the rest of the 600 horses, and the canvas. On the last train will be the remainder of the equipment and the performers and business staff. By the time everything has been hauled to the grounds breakfast will be ready.

The twenty-four hour man of the show and his assistants will arrive in the city to-night to inspect the streets over which the parade is to pass, to buy the provisions for the 1,000 people, the horses and 780 wild animals, and to make all other arrangements necessary to the coming of the world's best and most popular circus.

The new million dollar parade will leave the show grounds at 12 o'clock and pass through the principal business streets. It will be three miles long and absolutely new from start to finish. There was never a circus in the world that could display, in both its parade and its exhibition tents, one-half the wonders that the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' show will exhibit upon the streets.

There will be two performances here. The one in the afternoon will begin at 2 o'clock and the night show at 8. The doors will open an hour earlier for an inspection of the greatest traveling zoo in the world and the enjoyment of a popular concert by Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' military band.

Those who wish to avoid the crush on the grounds may buy reserved seats and admissions in the branch office of the circus in The Anderson Fowler Drug Co. Store Incorporated. It will open early in the morning and the prices there will be the same as on the show grounds.

HUGE BIRD

Measuring Nearly Seven Feet From Tip to Tip.

A strange bird of a grayish or smoke color was killed by Mr. Luther Johnson near one of his ponds on his farm five miles northeast of the city one day last week. The bird measured six feet and five inches from tip to tip of wings, five feet and eight inches from end of bill to toes and its bill measured eight inches in length. The huge bird was in the act of alighting on the water when Mr. Johnson fired and one shot broke its neck.

DELEGATES ARE NAMED

To Represent Hopkinsville in the Great Deep Waterway Meeting.

AT CHICAGO OCTOBER 12-14.

Object is to Project Inland Marine Route From Lakes to Gulf.

Great enthusiasm will be infused into the project of forming an extensive inland marine transportation route at the sixth annual convention of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association, which will be held in Chicago October 12, 13 and 14. Ten thousand delegates will attend, representing every Commonwealth, the United States Congress, many Federal departments, the various State legislatures, every aggressive city and every important mercantile organization in the land.

The enterprise fostered by the association is the most ambitious of the kind ever undertaken. The proposed waterway, which would include the Illinois and Mississippi rivers and all of its numerous tributaries, would provide more than half of the United States, or an area of 2,765,000 square miles, with all the benefits of river freight and passenger service.

AT LEAST 8,000 WILL ATTEND.

Every State will send official representatives. W. K. Kavanaugh of St. Louis, president of the organization, said yesterday that at least 8,000 accredited delegates will participate, and there is a probability that the number will exceed 10,000.

The convention will be held in the Auditorium. The visitors will be the guests of the City of Chicago and its leading commercial organizations. The association headquarters will be in the Auditorium Annex. The governors of 18 States will be present.

Mayor Meacham has appointed the following delegates to represent Hopkinsville:

B. F. McClaid, E. M. Flack, Lucian H. Davis, Walter Knight, John F. Bible.

Mail Carriers Murdered.

Jackson, Ky., Sept. 23.—As a result of the robbery of the mail between here and Hazard, Ky., Tuesday night, it is feared that Leander Howard, the mail carrier, and Wm. Marshall, assistant mail carrier, were murdered, and their bodies hidden in a mountain ravine by the persons who committed the robbery. No trace has been obtained of Howard or Marshall, who was known to be making the trip with him.

Checks totalling $36,000 were found near the scene of the robbery. Many of the letters in the mail sacks contained money, but how much is not known. The sacks had been cut open and all their contents taken except the checks.

Woman's Greatest Trouble.

Big Sandy, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of this place, says: "Every two weeks, I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weaknesses for seven years, Cardui helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's greatest trouble. Cardui is woman's greatest medicine, because it overcomes that weakness and brings back strength. In the past 50 years, Cardui helped over a million women. Try it for your troubles, today.

Purely Personal

Mrs. W. E. Carter has returned from a visit to relatives near Pembroke.

Mrs. Millard Bartley has returned from Howell, Ind., where she spent three weeks with her husband, who is engaged in concrete construction work. The latter is now stationed at Bellville, Ill.

AT DAVIS HOME.

A Chapter Named In His Honor Is Organized.

Mrs. L. McF Blakemore State President, and Mrs. C. G. Duke President of the local chapter U. D. C., went to Fairview Saturday to assist in organizing a chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

It was constituted with eleven members and many others have papers to be filled out soon. The new chapter was named Jefferson Davis Home Chapter. The following officers were chosen:

President, Mrs. E. D. Humphrey.
First Vice President, Mrs. Thos. Combs.

Treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Keeling.
Recording Secretary, Miss Ivy Gray.

Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lela Bowen.

Historian, Mrs. Geo. Gee.
Other members are Mrs. J. R. Wiles, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Shanklin, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Barksdale.

Fairview is located on the Christian-Told county line and the members live in both counties.

QUICK RICH.

Scheme In New York Raided And Big Men Caught.

In a raid on the brokerage offices of Jared Flagg, in West Fortieth streets, New York, Flagg and seven other widely known men were arrested on a charge of fraudulently using the mails in a species of endless chain scheme to defraud investors. Daniel N. Morgan, former U. S. Treasurer, was one of the men arrested.

THE COST OF LIVING

Goes Up With Defeat of Canadian Reciprocity.

TRUSTS ARE IN CONTROL.

Bread As Well As Meat To Become a Luxury To The Poor.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Foodstuffs which might have been affected by an influx of Canadian products had Laurier and his Government not been defeated in Canada, rose sharply in price in all American supply centers last week. Wheat led the advance, and was followed later by flour, when millers ignored their previous price lists and adjusted their quotations to figures more commensurate with the advanced cost of the grain staple.

Oats, too, felt the effect of the Canadian vote, and as a result consumers may expect soon to pay increased prices for breakfast foods. The initial meal of the day, in fact, seems destined to bear the brunt of higher living costs within the next few months, as it needed only today's developments in the trading pits to add force to the recent advances in coffee and sugars. The consumers' toast and biscuit, wheat cakes and porridge, it is probable, will but add to the woes of the housekeeper.

It is by no means certain that the advances in the price of wheat and allied foodstuffs indicate that the maximum has been reached. One of the most prominent wheat traders in Chicago advanced the opinion that spring wheat, the grade used most extensively for fine flour, is due to increase in cost 20 cents a bushel.

DIAMOND BITS ARE COSTLY

For Value for the Eight Needed in Drilling in Rock is About $800.

A diamond bit for rock drilling is quite an expensive article. Its value, however, will undergo fluctuations,
dependent upon the price of the diamonds. Perhaps $800 is a fair value for a bit. The diamond used is exceedingly hard—harder than those usually used as jewelry. Their carat price is considerable, averaging, say, at $60 a carat. The diamonds used will weigh from one to two carats, so that eight have a value ranging from $480 to $960, on the average. The loss of a bit means so many diamonds gone and may lead to difficulty with the hole. The diamond is not tough, but brittle. It will withstand heavy pressure if applied evenly and without shock. It can readily be seen that drilling through seamy rock may become quite unfavorable. If there is much quartz present the abrasion may become excessive. Under ordinary conditions, however, the wear on the diamonds,
while considerable, is by no means prohibitive.—Cassier's Magazine.

POET AT POET'S BIRTHPLACE.

Shepherd M. Dugger, the bard of Grandfather mountain, recently described for the Observer a dance at Blowing Rock. Could any words, in truth, embody more sense sublime than these? "Just as the saffron fan from the sunset gathered in its folds, men and women darted into the dance like meteors, and as the sweet zephyrs from the Grandfather whispered poems through the windows they glided metrically on the thrilling pulse of music to the rhythmic metre of souls." Or than these?
"The gaudily dressed couples were so thick on the floor that they looked like a wilderness of blooming hododendrons stirred by a breeze."— Charlotte Observer.

A "WREATH OF BABIES."

Imagination is the making of a writer, so one has been led to believe.
Perhaps; but some writers go too far. Just listen to this description of a bit of simple summer millinery
from a foreign publication:
"It goes with a yellow print frock,
like the poet's—
"Buttercup-color was her print gown.
So sweetly rare, so quaintly fair!"
and here we had gray chip, very coarse, but dull of surface, and but-tercup-yellow taffetas Winterhalter bows, with raveled ends, sitting all around the low crown, with their fat, short legs sticking out well apart in front of them, for all the world like a wreath of chubby babies.

DESIRE TO MAKE NOISE.

Dr. Theodore Lessing, president of the anti-noise association at Hanover, Germany, in a lecture on the psychology of noise, recently delivered in that city, said that the desire to make a noise could never be conquered. "It manifests itself not only in the yelling of teamsters and the whistling of hackmen, but in needlessly energetic wielding of noise-making implements of trade,"
he continued.

INSECTS KILLING BIG GAME

Bulldog Flies Attack the Moose, Which Take Refuge in Water and Are Drowned.

Bulldog flies are killing big game
along the international boundary, according to County Commissioner Helic Clementson. Two moose were killed last week near a lumber camp on the east fork of Rapid river, and in his opinion large numbers of fine animals have lost their lives the last week.

The flies, which are fully a half inch long, are more plentiful than for many years and attack the moose in large numbers. Their stings drive the animals to distraction and in a crazed condition the rush through the woods, often entering log camps filled with men. They seek water and several have been drowned in attempting to evade the tormenting flies. A big moose was pulled out of the river twice last Thursday by lumbermen and the flies brushed off.

The deer are more fortunate in escaping the pests and have not suffered very much as yet, but are having their troubles from the deer flies.

olis Journal.

NOT BUILDING THE TEMPLE

Methodist's Rebuke of Presbyterian Brother Who Was One of the Quiet Kind.

A Presbyterian minister who had very conservative ideas dropped in one night on a Methodist revival where an extraordinary amount of exhorting and shouting were going on. He sat down in a seat far toward the back, and though he felt in sympathy with the work going on he could not bring himself to engage in the same kind of vocal activity. Presently a Methodist brother named Smith went back and urged him to come up and join the rank of workers, but the conservative held back, exclaiming: "I am one of the quiet kind, you know, and don't believe in so much noise and hubbub; you must remember, Brother Smith, that in the building of the temple there was heard neither the sound of saw nor of hammer.

"Humph!" snorted Brother Smith,
"we are not building temples here,
we are just blasting rock. The Lord's going to look after the temple."

THE REASON.

Senator Rayner, the wit of the senate, told at a dinner in Baltimore a story of the South.

"A northerner," he said, "was surprised, during a southern tour, by the number of Taliaferros he found everywhere. Doctors, lawyers, undertakers, clothiers—all seemed to be Taliaferros. The northerner put up in nearly every town at a Hotel
Taliaferro, and, if he wanted a cigar,
a Taliaferro sold it to him.

He couldn't understand it at all—till one day, motoring through a splendid country, he saw a tremendous mill that bore in vast letters the inscription, 'Taliaferro Manufacturing company.'

"Oho!" he said, 'they turn them
out by steam!'

THE TRAVELER'S COMFORT.

A slipper without a heel, which is so soft that it can be folded and put into a very small space, is a new invention designed for the traveler.
We have had cretonne hats and coats, cretonne covers for the furniture, and now cretonne slippers are among the latest things. A woman was making a pair the other day without a pattern. She bought a pair of soles, such as are used for the crocheted slippers, put her foot on the floor, fitted the cretonne over the instep and the rest was easy.
She bound the top of the slipper and sewed the lower edge to the sole. It will prove a great convenience for wear in the sleeper during the night journey.

LONG RECORD BROKEN.

The Rev. Robert Hugh Benson, the novelist, is now Monsignore Benson, having been promoted by Pius X.
His father was an Anglican archbishop, and he is the first case since 1606 of a member of an archbishop's family going over to the church of Rome.

ARE NOT HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS

Cows and Poultry Are Excluded From That Classification by Board of Appraisers.

The world certainly moves. There is no reasonable doubt that in the early stages of the development of the Aryan race, if not also of other races, the domestic animals might properly be considered as having a part, and an important one, in the home life. The researches of the American Museum of Natural History, through its aggressive agents in all parts of the world, have established the fact of the taming and domestication of the pheasants and their transformation into the useful barnyard fowl of today and of many yesterday. They were taken into the family, as it were, in a very literal sense, as has been said to have been the case with pigs, and may have been in the case of cows. But the world moves and cows and poultry are no longer to be considered as household effects; at least in polite society and by the government of the United States. The board of general appraisers settled that question definitely a short time ago. There may, indeed, be mild surprise in some quarters that the question had not been settled before, and it may have been by custom in such quarters, but it is well that it has been settled authoritatively by the government. Henceforth, so far, at any rate, as tariff is concerned, cows and poultry cannot be held to be household effects.—Manchester Union.

NATURAL FACT

The Optimist—I try not to place too much confidence in a man's opinion of himself.
The Pessimist—That's wise. The ass can make as much noise as the lion.

ORIENTAL SUPERSTITIONS.

The Japanese are a race of fisher folk, and, like all of their kind, are very superstitious, particularly regarding fish. Among the primitive races the men fish in large companies, and when they go out upon the briny deep they shut up all their women folk and forbid them to talk lest the fish might hear and disappear.

Another curious fishing custom end superstition of the olden time was connected with the first fish that was caught. This was taken into the house through a window, that the other fish might not see and refuse to nibble at the bait.

HONORS FOR AUTHOR.

The king and queen of Norway and prominent members of the storting attended the unveiling of a bronze statue to Camilla Collet, daughter of Nicola Wergeland. She was a writer, who took up her pen in defense of the rights of women, and is consequently honored by Norwegians.

PRACTICAL ACCOUNTANT.

"I don't see why American girls marry them European noblemen," said Farmer Cornstossel.
"Do you object as a matter of sentiment?"

"No. It ain't good business. The bridegroom generally has so many debts that they offset the entire profit on wedding presents."

AN UP-TO-DATE GIRL.

"I asked her to marry me, and she gave me a Supreme court decision."

"What kind of an answer is that?"
"Said she would give me six months to readjust myself so as to be acceptable."—Puck.

THE PROPER TINT.

"The man after you awhile ago, wore a dun colored suit."
"Dressed in dun clothes, was he? Then I'll bet he was a collector."

LOVE-MAKING STYLES CHANGE

Today the Flowery Sentiment of Old-Time Plays Is Considered Merely Melodramatic.

When a successful play of 25 or 30 years ago is revived critics invariably hasten to point out how theatrical and "old-fashioned" dramatic fare used to be in the last generation. And, in a sense, the criticism is quite justified. The sentiment of a former day cloys; the heroics only amuse us. Even so expert a workman as Sardou feels the changes of time. His set scenes—rage, denunciation, jealousy, terror—are nowadays dismissed as melodramatic. Actually, the difference is one of manner and not of essence. We are quite as fond of melodrama today as people were 30 years ago, if by melodrama one means impossible human beings acting in an impossible way. And, if anything, we are more sentimental today than the Victorians were. Only, once upon a time sentiment voiced itself in nicely turned and nicely balanced sentences succeeding each other in oratorical form. Today even sentiment has a lot of "go" to it. On the stage, as in the magazines, today the broad-shouldered young man who addresses spasmodic half sentences to the only woman in the world is as popular and as offensive as the heroes were in the age of vapors and antimacassars.

DRESS IN ITALIAN SENATE.

Considerable excitement was caused in the Italian senate the other day, writes a correspondent, by one of the ministers, the under secretary for the interior, Signor Falcioni, entering the sacred precincts dressed in a fancy pattern morning coat instead of the black frock coat which is de rigueur. Several senators on seeing him take his seat on the government bench walked out as a mark of protest. Later when he arose to make a speech the opposition to his doing so in his unusual attire was so strong that Signor Falcioni left the senate chamber, returning in a minute in the frock coat of an usher, lent him for the occasion. On his reappearance he was loudly cheered.

TELL THIS ON THE V. P.

There is much quiet amusement in administration circles anent an anecdote relating to no less a person than the v-e-p—nt.

A very sprightly lady who sat next to him at a dinner one evening last week turned suddenly to him and asked the question:

"Pray tell me how you ever happened to be called Sunny Jim."

"Madam," he wittily retorted, "I was called Sonny Jim when I was a little boy."

Immediately the whole table was in a roar.

FRUIT RAISING IN ENGLAND.

England sticks to her fruit raising. In ten years orchards increased 25,000 acres and small fruits 11,000. Last year there were 27,000 acres in strawberries, nearly 9,000 in raspberries, 25,000 in gooseberries and currants, 172,000 in apple trees, nearly 10,000 in pears, 12,000 in cherries and 16,000 in plums.

TWO DOUBLE-HEADERS.

Taken By Henderson Saturday And Sunday.

The double-headers at Henderson Saturday and Sunday were "courtney victories" for Henderson in all four of the games.

The first game was pitched by second baseman Weber for Hopkinsville and won by a score of 10 to 7.

The second was pitched by Johnson and no real effort was made to deprive the Hens of the honor of taking the double header. This score was 2 to 1.

The game Sunday were played to a big crowd and the plan was partially carried out to divide honors. Beasley pitched both games and at a critical game Weise let a grounder through and "Slate" fumbled a bunt, breaking the tie in the seventh inning, Henderson winning 3 to 2.

The last game was to go to Hopkinsville, but the Hens decided not to drop the balls at the proper time and the game played on its merits in the last few innings, ended 4 to 1 in favor of Henderson.

The two teams received the proceeds of the games, about $14 to each player.

Fulton had advertised a series of seven post-season games beginning yesterday, but these will not be played, as Hopkinsville's park is being dismantled for the circus Thursday.

K. I. T. OFFICIALS

Hold Last Meeting of the Season Here Sunday.

Officials of the K. I. T. Baseball League held a meeting here Sunday. Those present were: President C. C. Gosnell, of Vincennes; A. C. Murray, Clarksville; A. J. Levy, Paducah; S. S. Sneed, Henderson; W. Y. Eaker, Fulton. Cairo and Harrisburg were not represented.

All of the teams lost money, but the league will be continued next year. It is proposed to drop Jackson and Harrisburg and take in Evansville and one other Indiana town. Post-season games to decide the championship between Hopkinsville and Fulton, winners of the half-season pennants, were called off, as several Fulton players had left for their homes.

Hopkinsville's Reserve List.

Yon, Johnson, Beasley, McArthur, Glass, pitchers; Huhn and Smith, catchers; Nairn, Cooper, Weber, infielders; Lyons, Keating and Jones, outfielders. Suspended list, McElfresh, Brown, Holycross, Summers.

MONUMENTS
UNVEILED

In Riverside Cemetery In Honor of Two Deceased Members.

OF EUREKA LODGE W. O. W.

Hon. D. H. Kincheloe, The Well Known Orator, The Chief Speaker.

In the presence of a great crowd Sunday afternoon monuments were unveiled to James J. Western, who died Aug. 2, 1910, and Edward Boyd, who died Dec. 7, 1910, at Riverside cemetery by the Woodmen of the World lodge of Madisonville, of which the dead men were members. The monuments of Barre granite were erected by Eureka Lodge No. 25, at a cost of $100 each. Ceremonies were held by the officers of that lodge, which was represented by 50 members, who came in special coaches attached to No. 95 and returned on the Dixie Flyer.

A delegation of 35 from the Hill

City Camp at Cadiz also came on a special train.

Pearl City Camp of this city was represented by 100 or more.

A procession was formed at the lodge room and headed by the Third Regiment Band, marched to Riverside Cemetery, where the exercises were held. At 2 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the presiding officer, Archie Higgins. Claude R. Clark delivered a formal address of welcome, which was responded to by Hon. D. H. Kincheloe. At the cemetery the exercises were opened with a reading, "Oh Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud?" by Miss Mayme Wootton, daughter of the clerk of Eureka Lodge and a prominent bank cashier of Madisonville.

Miss Wootton is an accomplished elocutionist and her recitation was most beautifully rendered.

The memorial address was by Hon. D. H. Kincheloe. He discussed the history of the order, which was organized by I. C. Root in 1890 and now numbers 700,000 members and has a reserve fund of $14,000,000. He pointed out that the lives of great and good men are an inspiration to those who follow. Newton, Watts, Homer and Demosthenes were not fully appreciated until history passed upon their deeds. He dwelt upon charity as a cardinal virtue of the order and closed his eloquent address with Bryant's "Thanatopsis."

Several thousand persons attended the exercises, the weather conditions being ideal.
